(d.) To manufacture, erect, construct, produce, buy, acquire, maintain, sell, and deal in, or deal with, all articles, apparatus, appurtenances, and appliances which may be useful, convenient, or profitable to manufacture, erect, construct, produce, buy, acquire, maintain, sell, or deal in or with, or in furtherance of or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(e.) To build, construct, purchase, charter, or otherwise acquire and operate vessels, steamboats, fishing-boats, tugs, tenders, scows, barges, crafts, and boats of every description, or any interest therein, and to let out, lease, hire, mortgage, charter, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein:

(f.) To purchase, use, construct, manufacture, hold, and sell nets, lines, seines, fish-traps and other implements, appliances, and instruments for catching, taking, and preserving fish in any part of Canada and in the waters adjacent thereto:

(g.) To erect, construct, maintain, operate, alter, buy, acquire, mortgage, and dispose of buildings, piers, wharves, canneries, salteries, smoke-houses, and machinery of every description in pursuance or furtherance of, or in connection with, the business hereinbefore specified:

(h.) To buy, lease, hire, acquire, subdivide, become possessed of or entitled to, and to sell, mortgage, lease, let, or otherwise dispose of real estate, foreshore with territorial water rights for fishing, foreshore rights, trawling rights, and fishing rights and privileges, real and personal property, and patents or patent rights, or the right to the exclusive or qualified use of any machinery, appliances, process, receipt, or method of any description, whether patented or protected from general use by any authority or power whatsoever, machinery, warehouses, wharves, fishing-stations, and other buildings and easements in any part of Canada or in any part of the world which it may be necessary, profitable, useful, or convenient to so buy, lease, hire, acquire, or otherwise become possessed of or entitled to in pursuance or furtherance of or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(i.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges which may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To construct or equip cold-storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail, and to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(k.) To carry on business as dealers in ice, stone, sand, lime, tin, lumber, brick, dry-goods, groceries, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of real estate, insurance and transfer agents, warehousemen, butchers and meat-packers, and common carriers by land and water; and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the powers herein contained; and, in connection with the business of the Company, to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any article dealt in by the Company:

(l.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water, or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works, and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor, or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold or used:

(o.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(p.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any race-way, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(q.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct, and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(r.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(s.) To carry passengers and goods on any of the vessels, boats, scows, barges, and crafts of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Allied Crafts & Sales, Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 13th day of January, 1944.

The authorized capital of the Company is seventy-five thousand dollars, divided into seventy-five thousand shares of one dollar each.

The Company is also authorized to issue seventy-five thousand shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is Room 311, 602 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To take over the assets and liabilities and to acquire as a going concern the machine-shop, plastic products, and manufacturing business now being conducted by E. J. Vann and John De Armand Crowe, under the firm-name and style of "Allied Crafts & Sales," at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, upon such terms as to price and as to whether for cash or shares of the Company as the directors may deem advisable:

(b.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal, both retail and wholesale, in all metals, alloys, amalgams, wood, glass, vegetables and vegetable compounds, plastics and plastic materials of all kinds, bricks, tiles, and building materials of all kinds, and chemicals of all kinds, and other substances and products made therefrom, and to act as agents for the manufacture, purchase, sale, or installation of the foregoing or products made therefrom:

(c.) To carry on the business of mechanical engineers, electrical engineers, tool-makers, welders, die-makers, metal-founders, metal-workers, boiler-makers, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smiths, wood-workers, builders, painters, metallurgists, water-supply engineers, gas-makers, farmers, printers, carriers and merchants, and to buy and sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let or hire, and deal in machinery, implements, rolling-stock, and hardware of all kinds (subject to the provisions of the "Engineering Profession Act" of the Province of British Columbia):

(d.) To establish and maintain and carry on a jobbing, commission, general agency business, and to carry on a business of manufacturers, manufacturers' agents, commission merchants, and general merchants, forwarders and distributors and warehousemen in all their respective branches:

(e.) To apply for, and obtain, purchase or otherwise acquire, and to sell or otherwise dispose of formulæ processes, methods and inventions, trade-marks, trade-names, patents, patent rights, copyrights, licences, royalties, and similar privileges and concessions, or any interest therein, and to finance and (or) otherwise assist any person, firm, or company having or claiming to have any such for the purpose of testing, perfecting, and acquiring the same:

(f.) To act as agents, commercial agents, brokers, merchants, or representatives in Canada, or in any foreign country, for Canadian or foreign commercial houses, and for other persons, firms, or corporations, and to buy, sell, or otherwise dispose of, hold, own, manufacture, produce, export, and import, and deal in, both wholesale and retail, either as principals or agents, and upon commission, consignment, or otherwise, or as jobbers or brokers, goods, wares, products, and merchandise of any kind and nature whatsoever:

(g.) To move, transport, erect, assemble, and install machinery, tools, equipment, and buildings of every description:

(h.) To carry on the business of general contractors, and to enter into any contract for constructing, executing, owning, and carrying on the business of a general construction company, and contractors for the construction of works, public and private, and buildings of all kinds, and parts thereof, and to act as agents for either persons or corporations carrying on a similar business:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully paid or partly paid up, the shares, bonds, or debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property or goods acquired by the Company or for services or other valuable consideration:

(j.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

(k.) To buy, sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise deal in real estate, in immovable property, and generally to carry on the business of real-estate agents in all its branches.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
